

CAPILLO, ABEL

Abel was born on Jan. 8, 1926 and attended the St. Eugene Residential School near Cranbrook. He was a member of the Columbia Lake Band, also known as the Akisqnuq Band. His parents were David and Suzette Capilo. He enlisted in the Canadian Army with the Westminster Regiment in June 1944, training in Wetaskiwin, Alberta, and Calgary before being sent overseas in February 1945. After the war Abel worked as a logger, and also spent time in Alaska. He was just 36 years old when he died on July 6, 1962.
