

CHIVERS, FREDERICK J.

Born in Blairmore, Alberta, on Aug. 7, 1923, Frederick lived in Calgary for the next 74 years. He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1942, serving as airframe mechanic with Bomber Command's No. 6 Group in Yorkshire, England. He worked as Classified Advertising Manager for The Calgary Herald for 33 years. Starting in 1951 he rented a home at Lake Lillian every other weekend, and moved permanently to Radium Hot Springs in 1997. He loved grandfathering, golfing, gambling, gardening, and fishing. He married Florence in 1953 and they had two sons, Brad and Spencer. Fred died Sept. 14, 2016.

LEST WE FORGET