

DOCKING, PERCY

Percy Geoffe Docking was born in Trowbridge, Wiltshire, England on Aug 7, 1881. He served in the Boer War. After the war he immigrated to Canada in June of 1911. He married Nora Hope in 1921 and had two children; Eileen and Jack. Later in his life, he moved to live with his daughter Eileen and son-in-law, Allen Tegart. Percy was a stonemason until his retirement. Percy lost his only son Jack in June 1944 in WWII. His first grandchild Donna was born two months later. Donna always held a special place in his heart. He died November 15, 1958. He is buried in the Windermere District Cemetery

LEST WE FORGET