

ENGEL, H. RICHARD

Born in Govan, Saskatchewan on Jan. 16, 1930, Richard at the age of 17 was the first post-World War Two recruit into Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in Calgary, training as a paratrooper. He served in four Korean tours from 1951 to 1954 and was wounded in action in 1951. After working at various jobs, he founded The Canadian Aviation News in 1976. He met his life partner Faye in 1978. The couple became part-time Fairmont Hot Springs residents in 1990 and moved there full-time in 2000. Every Christmas, Richard set up model trains around the valley. He died April 2, 2014.

