

FRATER, KATHLEEN MARGARET (THORNTON)

Born July 22, 1922 at Fort McLeod, Alberta, Kay went to school in Princeton, B.C., and Invermere. She served in the Royal Canadian Air Force from 1941 to 1945. In Manitoba, she helped train aircrews to bomb targets at Bombing and Gunnery School No. 7. After the war, she worked at hospitals from Vancouver to Invermere, and at various shops in Invermere. She married local resident Jim Frater in 1948. Their children are Wayne, Wanda, and Betty-Jean. She loved gardening and painting, and served as secretary for the Order of the Eastern Star. Kay died April 28, 2010.
