

KOHORST, CHARELS R.

Charles was born in Invermere on Oct. 15, 1923. He worked in logging and with Parks Canada in Radium Hot Springs. During World War Two he served with the First Canadian Paratroopers in the Canadian Army, and trained in Canada and the U.S. After the war he married Jean and they raised six children: Danny, Kevin, Christine, Jerry, George, and Clifford. The family lived in Edgewater. Charles enjoyed guiding, hunting, and trapping. He was also well known for witching wells in the valley. He died Dec. 23, 1997.

