

MARR, THOMAS

Tom was born Aug. 3, 1918 and grew up in Dauphin, Manitoba. He obtained work on a farm at Daysland, Alberta and later married Lou, his employer's daughter. Shortly afterwards he was shipped overseas with the Canadian Army in 1942 and arrived back in Canada in 1945. The couple moved to the valley and built the house that still stands at Marr's Landing, near Windermere. Their children were Andrew, Patty, Kerry, and Doug. Tom worked for the Department of Highways for many years. He was a willing volunteer and helped build the Windermere Community Hall. Tom died Aug. 4, 1995.
