

NEWTON, NIEL CAMPBELL

Neil was born on October 11, 1918 and grew up in Wilmer, B.C. Neil joined the Canadian Army on January 16, 1943 and trained at Camp Borden in Ontario. He drove tanks in active duty through Caen, France, Turnhout, Belgium and Nijmegen, Arnhem, Netherlands. Neil settled in Vancouver and in 1949 married June Plummer, who had served in England and Italy as an R.N. Neil worked as an auto body repair technician. His favourite pastime was fishing and camping, often in the Columbia Valley. His children are Joanne (Ken) and Wayne (Val), grandchildren Lauren, Cameron, Kyle and Brad. He died May 12, 2011.

LEST WE FORGET