

SHARP, THOMAS MADILL

Thomas Madill Sharp was called Madill by his family and Bill by everyone else. Bill was born in Strasbourg, Saskatchewan on June 10, 1912. He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force during WW II. Bill did his basic training in Calgary and was then sent to England to serve. His rank was LAC or Leading Aircraftman. He was a mechanic who prepared the planes to do their job to win the war. After the war, Bill returned to Canada, joined BC Tel, married Barbara Butler (WAC) and had four children. His son David, whom Bill lived with for some time, taught school in Invermere for over 30 years. Bill passed away on June 20, 2009 at age 97.
