

KLUCZNY, EDMUND

Edmund Kluczny, Captain of Squadron 90 Royal Air Force (RAF), flew 35 missions throughout Europe as a World War II pilot and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Edmund was born November 14, 1921. Edmund retired in Brisco, BC in the late 70s and later moved to Invermere's Columbia Gardens. He passed away at age 91 (2013). He enjoyed family, community, gardening, writing, and competing in the B.C. Senior Games. Edmund had four children, Lyle, Lynda, Debbie, and Karen, and was a stepfather to Kevin, Wally, Donna, Grace, Linda, and Bruce. Edmund also had many grandchildren whom he loved dearly.

LEST WE FORGET