

MARR, LOU (POUND)

Lou was born in Daysland, Alberta on April 14, 1923 and married Tom Marr in July 1942, shortly before he was shipped overseas. She didn't see him again for four years. Lou enlisted in April 1943 with the Royal Canadian Air Force Women's Division and trained in photography, serving in several locations in Canada. After the war the Marrs moved to Windermere and had Andrew, Patty, Kerry, and Doug. Lou worked as a nursing assistant at the Invermere hospital. She loved people and animals, her door was always open, and her baking and gifts were generously shared. Lou died April 21, 2008.
