

MITCHELL, CORBIN N. (CORKY)

Corky was born in Corbin, B.C. on Feb. 9, 1926. He enlisted in 1943 in the Royal Canadian Air Force and served as Aircraftman Second Class. After the war, he transferred to the RCAF Reserve and served in Ottawa and P.E.I. He was discharged as a Sergeant in 1947. He married Allison in 1949. They had four sons: Bill Rogers, Douglas, William, and Kenneth Mitchell. Corky worked at Foyston Sawmills in Radium Hot Springs, and delivered gas and oil. He then owned the Imperial Oil Dealership. He was active in sports and coached Little League baseball for years.

Corky died Jan. 26, 2001.

LEST WE FORGET