

STATHAM, HUBERT ALEXANDER

Hube was born in Vidora, Saskatchewan in 1918. His parents, Archibald and Gladys Statham, came to Saskatchewan from England in 1917. In 1936, when Hube was 18, he headed west with his friend Tony Staberg. When they got to the Columbia Valley, they leased the Hurst Ranch north of Wilmer. In 1940, Hube signed up for World War II and when he came home in 1945, he bought property in Wilmer. Hube married Elinor Ede on October 26, 1946. In 1948, they moved onto their property and began a lifetime of ranching. Here they raised two sons, David and Wayne. Hube passed away in 2006 at the age of 88.
