

ISAAC, STEPHEN B.

Stephen was born Sept. 4, 1917. He was a member of the Columbia Lake Band, also known as the Akisqnuq Band, and attended St. Eugene Residential School near Cranbrook. When World War Two began, he joined the Canadian Army. He was following in his father's footsteps, since his father Maurice Isaac had previously served in Scotland with the Canadian Forestry Corps in World War One. Stephen was married to Mary of the Adams Lake Band near Chase, B.C. He died on July 16, 1957 at the age of thirty-nine.
