

NIXON, HAROLD

Harold was born on July 20, 1926 in Invermere. He enlisted and served in the Canadian Army in World War Two. After the war he lived in Invermere, Parson and Cranbrook, working in the forestry industry. He married Theresa and they raised Garth, Gordon, and Lorne. He loved the outdoors and fishing. Harold also loved fixing cars, radios, computers, and all other home electronics. He even built two holiday travel trailers from magazine designs. Harold also worked tirelessly with CFCN Calgary to bring television to the northern part of the valley. Harold died Dec. 24, 2010.
