

STONE, JAMES EDWARD

James Edward Stone was born in Cranbrook on February 23, 1914. He worked in the Forest industry in the surrounding areas. Jim was married and lived in Kimberley where he worked at the mine until he joined the Canadian Army for 3 ½ years. After the war, they moved to Brisco where he established a sawmill with partner, Dick Gillis. He and his wife Olga had two children, Robert and Gale. After the passing of his wife he met and married Bernice Woolf of Calgary. Jim retired in 1969 and later they moved to Invermere. Jim died in 1999.

LEST WE FORGET