

WANNOP, EVELYN MARY (ASHWORTH)

Evelyn was born in Invermere on July 21, 1924, the youngest of Arthur and Florence Ashworth's four children. Her siblings were Jim, Frances, and Margaret. After high school, Evelyn worked at Pynelogs Hospital and then enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force, serving in Ottawa and Halifax. After the war she studied Home Economics at the University of British Columbia, where she married air force veteran Robert Wannop. They lived in Vancouver and had six children: Jane, John, Margaret, Peter, George, and Jim. Her siblings Fran Jeffery and air force veteran Jim Ashworth still live in Invermere.
